⭐ We're comparing restaurants with a minimum 4-star rating against those with ratings below 4 (Assuming that the number of votes reflects the relative demand for each establishment. Our focus is on the top three cuisines.)
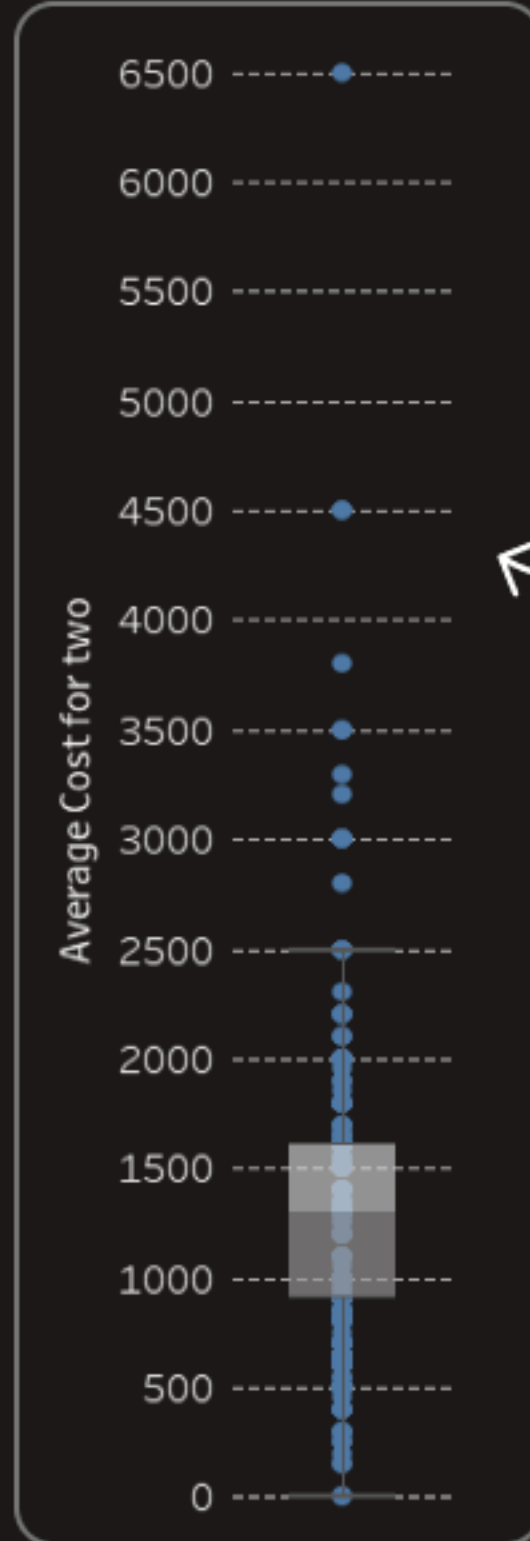

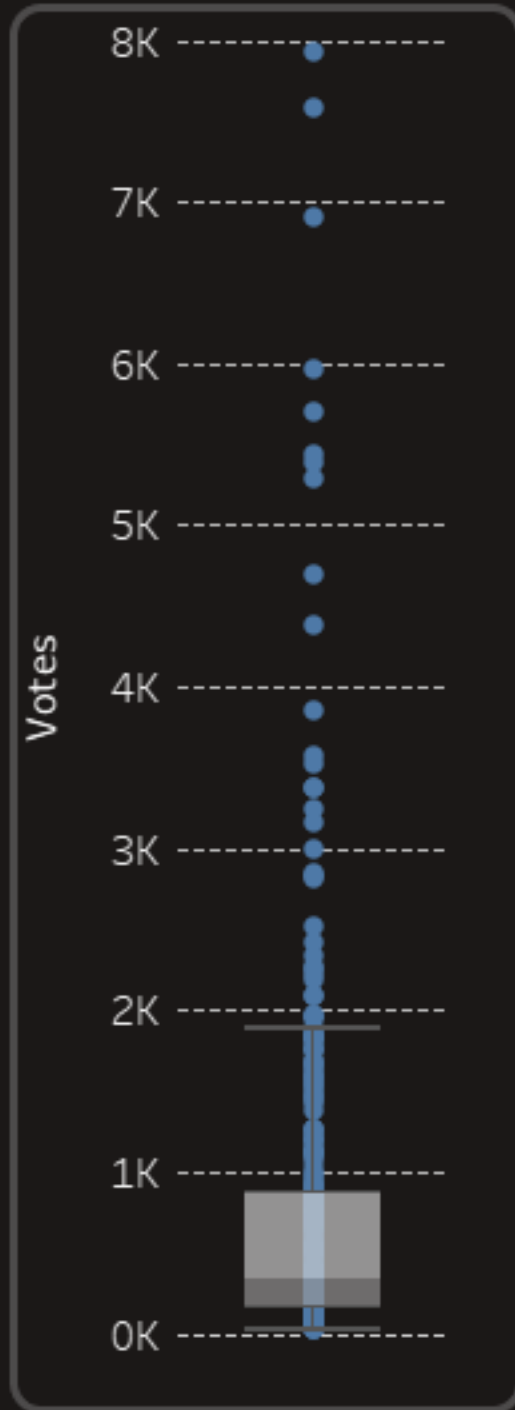

Restaurants with North Indian cuisine and a rating above 4 have
Median : 333 votes
Cost for two people : 1300 Rupees.

Conversely, those with a rating less than 4 have
Median : 43 votes
Cost for two people : 600 Rupees
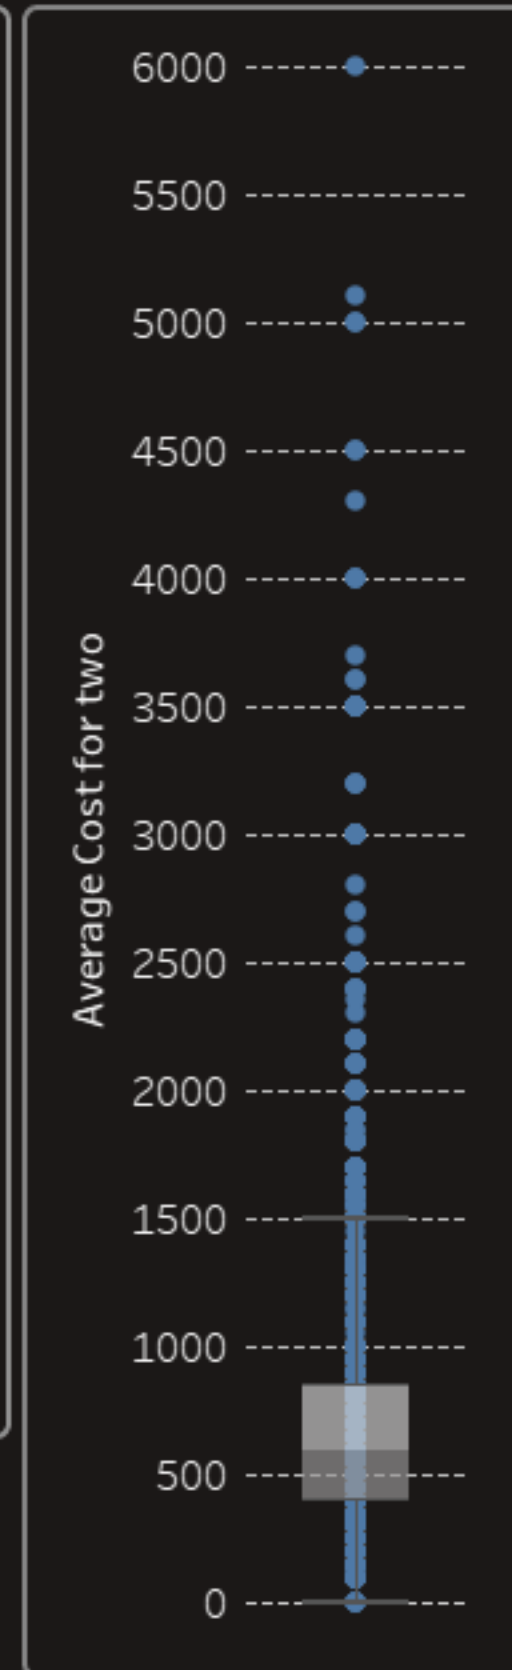

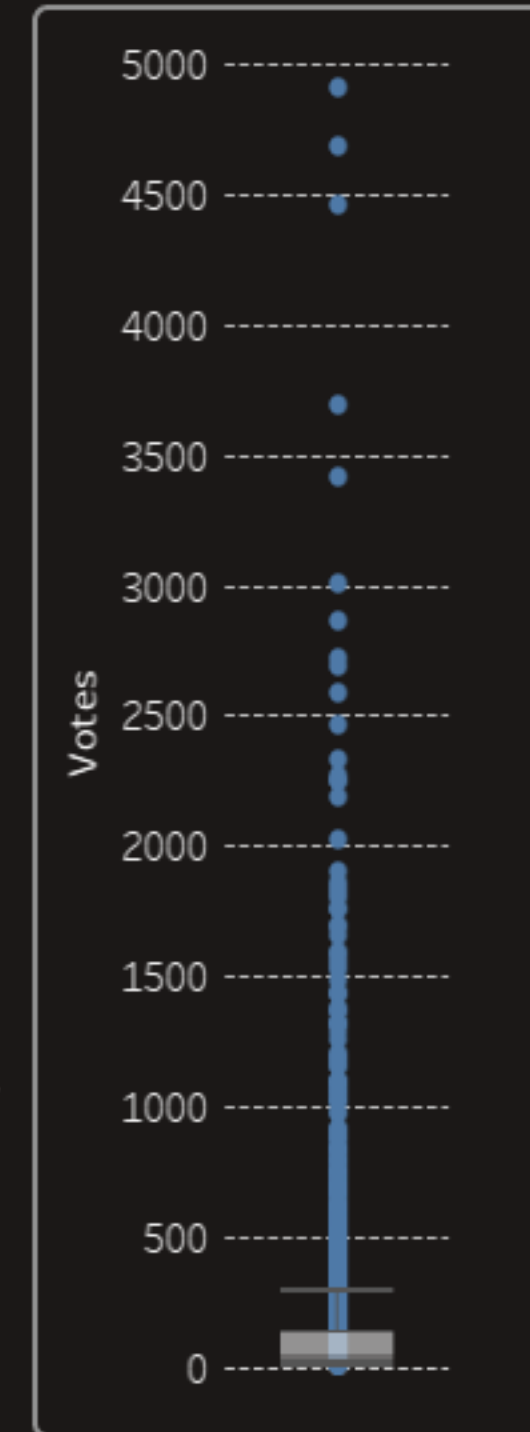

⭐ This indicates that restaurants with higher menu prices provide good food and maintain higher ratings, influencing customer visits. Customers tend to visit restaurants with good ratings.

Similar trend is seen for chinese and fast food cuisine restaurants
